

Wanda R. Black

A celebration of life will be held at a later date for Sequim resident Wanda R. Black, who died Jan. 19, 2008, at the age of 92 of pneumonia/heart failure.

She was born Oct. 26, 1915, in Corona, Calif., to Thomas Nicholson and Daisy Forest Chism Ridgway.

BLACK

She graduated from Huntington Park High School in Los Angeles, Calif., in 1934.

She attended cosmetology courses after high school.

She married Robert Black on Sept. 24, 1972 in Reno, Nev. He preceded her in death on March 13, 2007.

The couple lived in Los Angeles until his retirement. They moved to Gardiner in 1976 and to Sequim in 2003.

Mrs. Black was primarily a homemaker and mother. Earlier, she worked as a bookkeeper for several companies, including Sears. Before she retired, she worked for Litton Industries.

She was a wonderful seamstress who also enjoyed making decorative cakes.

She is survived by her son Robert Thomas Black of Cody, Wyo. and daughter Nancy Lee Bain of Sequim.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her brother, who died as an infant, and sisters Christine, Lenora, Frances and Audrey.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Hospice of Clallam County, 540 E. Eighth St., Port Angeles, WA 98362.

Linde Family Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.
