

Death and Memorial Notice

GRACE CASSALERY

Sequim resident Grace Cassalery died Thursday afternoon, May 4, 2006, from lung cancer.

She gracefully fought this disease with the help of her family and friends, who helped her to remain at home through the illness and until she made her transition to the other side to be with her husband and love of her life, Moe (Almon) Cassalery, who preceded her in death on April 9, 2002.

She was born in Port Angeles to John and Edith (Teele) Griggs. She attended Port Angeles High School.

She married John Hill in 1940 and divorced in 1962. He preceded her in death on April 11, 1985. She later married and divorced Harry Nastuik, who preceded her in death in 1974.

She married Moe (Almon) Cassalery on May 25, 1973, in Shelton.

She is survived by son Jerry Cassalery of Sequim; daughters Shirley (Allen) Christiansen of Kihei,

Grace and Moe Cassalery

Hawaii, and Sheri Hill of Sequim; stepson Craig (Barb) Cassalery of Boring, Oregon; stepdaughter Paula Nelson of Sequim; brother George (Bertha) Norris of Port Angeles, six grandchildren, five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her son, Michael J Hill; sisters Thelma Kreehand of Shelton, Washington, and Dorothy Griggs of Port Angeles; and step-grandson Steven Nelson.

Memorials: The Elks Club Coats for Kids Program, 143 Port Williams Road, Sequim, WA 98382, or Hospice of Clallam County, 540 E. Eighth St., Port Angeles, WA 98362.