

Odolite 'Oda' Evonne Dammeier

A memorial service for Sequim resident Odolite "Oda" Evonne Dammeier will be at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 19, at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 525 N. Fifth Ave., Sequim.

Mrs. Dammeier died Nov. 6, 2010, at the age of 93.

She was born Dec. 23, 1916, in Walla Walla to Rolla and Margaret Phillips Tharp.

DAMMEIER

In Tacoma, she met Bill Dammeier. They married on July 3, 1947.

She worked at drug store fountains and did office work in Tacoma, Seattle and Ketchikan, Alaska. They also lived in Bountiful, Utah, where she worked in a medical clinic for 13 years before retiring to Sequim.

In Bountiful, she played the organ at the Episcopal church, was worthy matron of Eastern Star and president of P.E.O. Sisterhood, Chapter W.

In Sequim, she was active at St. Luke's Episcopal Church and sang in the choir.

She also held offices in P.E.O. Chapter FY and Rhododendron Grange.

She is survived by many nephews and nieces.

Her husband and sister Joy Edna Deakes preceded her in death.
