

Deaths and services

Jeanette Cullison

PORT ANGELES — There will be a private family service for Jeanette Cullison, 82, who died Friday, Feb. 18, 1994, in a Seattle hospital following a brief illness.

Mrs. Cullison was born June 25, 1911, in Anaconda, Mont. She married Patrick Cullison. He died in 1984.

Mrs. Cullison came to the Northwest in the early 1930s. She was a graduate of the University of Montana and also had attended the University of Washington. She performed as a radio actress on "Valiant Lady" during the late 1930s and taught at Lawton Elementary School in Seattle.

Surviving are several cousins.

Memorial contributions may be made to a favority charity.

Arrangements are by Bleitz Funeral Home in Seattle.

Harold L. Davis

SEQUIM — Memorial services for Harold LeRoy Davis, 85, of Sequim will be at noon Wednesday in the Sequim Seventh Day Adventist Church with the Rev. Jim Brown officiating. Inurnment will be in Gardiner Cemetery. Mr. Davis died Tuesday, Feb. 16, 1994, in Sequim.

He was born Aug. 22, 1908, in Creston, British Columbia, Canada, to Allen Eugene and Laverna Mae Snyder Davis. He married Edith W. Ertman Oct. 30, 1930, in Lansing, Mich.

Mr. Davis served with the U.S. Army.

During his career, he worked as a Cat Skinner, boat builder, commercial fisherman and homesteader in Alaska.

In addition to time in Alaska, he also made his home in Michigan, California, Montana, and Idaho before coming to Washington. Mr. Davis was a resident of Federal Way when he moved to Sequim in 1972.

He was a member of the Sequim Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Survivors include wife Edith W. Davis at home; sons Ronald, Ralph of McKinleyville, Calif., David of Oceanside, Calif., Robert of Sequim and Ted of Tacoma; brother Hugh of California; 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by sister Ruth Davis.

Memorials are suggested to a favorite charity.

Sequim Valley Cahpel is in charge with Mount Angeles Crematory.

Eddie Della Jr