James Thomas Farricker of North Bend, loving husband to Cindy, passed away November 8, 2016 in Tulum, Mexico.

James was born in New York and grew up on the quiet streets of Dumont, New Jersey in a small two-story house with his six brothers and sisters. A dutiful brother as much as a maker of mischief, Jimmy always lived in the moment, a spontaneous and adventurous soul who was the embodiment of fun.

Growing up in a household with a sports-crazed patriarch, James was quick to adopt sports into his life. Never quite catching the knack for football or baseball, basketball would inevitably become his favorite.

He attended Rutgers University for two years on a basketball scholarship and later moved to Colorado with a few friends from Dumont. He worked at Copper Mountain ski resort to earn his Colorado residency and moved to Fort Collins Colorado to attend Colorado State University where he met Cindy, the love of his life.

They married in 1980 and had their first child, Lauren in 1983. Shortly after Lauren's birth he accepted a job at Boeing and the family moved to North Bend.

He pursued his career in computer networks at Boeing, rolling in style with his famous "Brn-to-net" license plate.

Jimmy and Cindy had two more children in Washington, Elizabeth and Patrick.

Jimmy enjoyed fishing and the home he and Cindy made for themselves in Gardiner Washington where he planned to retire. He was a hard-working, vibrant, loving, funny, compassionate man who will be sorely missed, by not only his family but by everyone who had the opportunity to meet him.
