

Obituaries

Patricia King Brotz

A memorial service will be held at the Gardiner Community Church Saturday, Feb. 21, at 2 p.m. for Patricia Louise King Brotz, who died Jan. 28 at the V.A. Hospital in Bay Pines, Florida. The Rev. John D. Thomson will officiate.

Mrs. Brotz was born July 17, 1933 in Portland, Oregon to Louise E. and George H. King. She lived in Gardiner a number of years and graduated from Port Townsend High School in 1951. She was a U.S. Navy veteran and a skilled legal secretary. A member of the National Thespians Society and the Screen Actors Guild, she worked as an actress in theatre, television and movies in Hollywood, CA for many years. She was married in the Gardiner Church on Oct. 31, 1966. She was a member of the Beach Methodist Church of Ft. Myers Beach, Florida where she resided the past eight years.

Survivors include her husband, Gary L. Brotz of Ft. Myers Beach, FL; her mother, Louise E. King and brother Wayne G. King of Gardiner; a sister, Kathleen King of Silverdale; and two nieces, Renee Dovell, Bakersfield, CA; and Denise King of Seattle.

Patricia King Brotz

A memorial service will be held at the Gardiner Community Church on Saturday, Feb. 21, at 2 p.m. for Patricia Louise King Brotz, who passed away Jan. 28, at the V.A. Hospital in Bay Pines, Florida. Reverend John D. Thomson will officiate.

Mrs. Brotz was born July 17, 1933, in Portland, Oregon to Louise E. and George H. King. She lived in Gardiner a number of years and graduated from Port Townsend High School in 1951. She was a U.S. Navy Veteran and a skilled legal secretary. A member of the National Thespians Society and the Screen Actors Guild, she worked as an actress in theatre, television and movies in Hollywood, CA for many years.

She was married in the Gardiner Church on Oct. 31, 1966. She was a member of the Beach Methodist Church of Ft. Myers Beach, Florida, where she resided the past eight years.

Survivors include her husband, Gary L. Brotz of Ft. Myers Beach, FL; her mother, Louise E. King, and brother Wayne G. King, both of Gardiner; a sister, Kathleen King of Silverdale; and two nieces, Renee Dovell, Bakersfield, CA; and Denise King of Seattle.

Cremation was at Bay Pines, FL; with private inurnment.

