

ND SERVICES

Donald L. Leakey

SEQUIM — Service of Remembrance for Donald Lewis Leakey, 80, of Sequim will be at 1 p.m. Jan. 10 in the Gardiner Community Grange. Mr. Leakey died Friday, Dec. 19, 1997, in Sequim.

He was born March 27, 1917, in Everett to Ben Albert and Lilly (Zook) Leakey and married Martha Bedrich Jan. 29, 1954, in Vancouver, B.C.

After growing up in Everett, Mr. Leakey served with the military during World War II, pioneering with radar.

For 14 years, he worked in heavy equipment maintenance and mechanics at E.A. Nord Sash and Door in Everett then, in Seattle, for Metropolitan Bus. He; also, was employed by Rayonier at Bangor Submarine Base.

A 30-year resident of Discovery Bay, Mr. Leakey was a founding member of the Discovery Bay Fire District and a member of Rhododendron Grange.

Survivors include wife Martha of Sequim; brothers Jim Lakey of Marysville and John Lakey of Lake Stephens; and sisters Jean Dobesh of Camano Island and Barbara Yotty of Marysville. Brothers Roy, Al, and Robert preceded him in death.

Memorial contributions are suggested to Gardiner Fire District, 2000 Old Gardiner Road, Gardiner, WA 98382; or charity of choice.

Sequim Valley Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

■ The Peninsula Daily News also publishes special paid obituary notices in the classified section in Classification 25 under personals.

Donald Lewis Leakey

A memorial service for Donald Lewis Leakey will be held at 1 p.m. Jan. 10, 1998, at Gardiner Community Center. Mr. Leakey died Dec. 19, 1997, in Sequim. He was 80.

Mr. Leakey was born March 27, 1917, at Everett, to Ben Albert and Lilly Zook Leakey. He grew up in Everett and joined the military during World War II where he pioneered radar. Following the war he worked for E.A. Nord Sash and Door for 14 years in Everett.

He and Martha Bedrich Anderson married on Jan. 29, 1955, in Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. Leakey was in heavy equipment maintenance and mechanics and also worked several years for the Metro bus system in Seattle. He also worked for Rayonier and at the Bangor Submarine Base. He was a volunteer with the Discovery Bay Fire Department and lived in the area for 30 years.

He was a member of Rhododendron

Grange 1137.

In addition to his wife at the family home, Mr. Leakey is survived by brothers Jim Lakey, of Marysville, and John Lakey, of Lake Stephens; sisters Jean Dobesh, of Camano Island, and Barbara Yotty, of Marysville. He was preceded in death by brothers Roy, Al and Robert; and a sister.

Memorial contributions may be made to Gardiner Fire District 5, 2000 Old Gardiner Road, Gardiner, 98382 or a favorite charity.

Sequim Valley Chapel was in charge of arrangements.