Cash and two grandchildren.

Edwin James Lucier

Services were held in Kent for Edwin Lucier, who died June 18. He was 85.

Inurnment followed with military honors, in Tahoma National Cemetery, Kent, on July 19, 2002.

Mr. Lucier was born April 10, 1917, in San Jose, Calif., to Maybelle and Archie Lucier.

He married Alice Sturek on Feb. 6, 1954.

He served in the Navy during World War II and after the war began a 33-year career with Pacific Bell Telephone Co.

An affable person with a quick wit, Mr. Lucier will be remembered with fondness by many a visitor to the Mother Lode area and Twain Harte, Calif., where they lived for 26 years.

He was an active volunteer, mostly as a docent for California State Historical Park in Columbia, a restored mining town, and for a repertory theater.

He was a perennial student at Columbia College, Columbia, Calif., for more than a decade after retirement.

Illness brought him and his wife closer to family and to Sequim in late 1999.

He was a member of the Sequim Elks Lodge and Rhododendron Grange in Gardiner and St. Joseph's Church.

Mr. Lucier is survived by his wife, Alice, a daughter, Suzanne Lucier, Tacoma; a son, John Lucier, San Diego, Calif.; a brother, William Lucier, Seattle; and three grandchildren.

Evergreen-Washelli Mortuary, Seattle, was in charge of arrangements.
