Kenneth Lee Muma

Veteran Washington State Patrol trooper Kenneth Lee Muma, who had served the east Jefferson County area since 1967 and lived at Gardiner, died at his home Aug. 10. He was 43.

Trooper Muma was born Sept. 30, 1940 at Grand Rapids, MI, the son of Lois and Kenneth Muma. He served with the U.S. Army from 1959 to 1962. He settled at Gardiner in October 1967 as the resident WSP trooper for the area.

He was active in the Discovery Bay Salmon Derby, was a volunteer fireman with the Discovery Bay Fire Protection District, and was a member of the WSP Troopers' Association.

He married Carol Jean Larsen Oct. 21, 1961 at Grant, MI. She survives at the family home along with a son, Mark Allen Muma. Also surviving are his parents, of Grant, MI; a brother, Thomas, also of Grant, and his grandmother, Eva Campbell of Grant.

Trooper Muma retired from the WSP in June this year on a disability.

A graveside inurnment service is scheduled for 2 p.m. Aug. 17 at the Gardiner Cemetery with the WSP chaplain officiating. Memorials are suggested to the Discovery Bay Volunteer Fire Department or to the American Lung Association.
