

OBITUARIES

Madeline R. Park

A graveside service for Madeline R. Park, of Seattle and Gardiner, is scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday, July 30, at Gardiner Cemetery. The Rev. John Morgan, of Gardiner Community Church, will preside.

Mrs. Park died July 21, 1999, in Seattle.

She was born Nov. 11, 1912, in Wahoo, Neb., to Kittie and Oscar Linderkamp.

She and Robert M. Park married April 4, 1936, in Wahoo, Neb. Mr. Park preceded her in death Aug. 11, 1989.

The Parks spent a great deal of time since the early 1960s at their Gardiner beach home at the old quarantine station. They loved the North Olympic Peninsula area. Mrs. Park enjoyed gardening and cooking, which she was known to do well, and they both enjoyed traveling in their recreational vehicle.

Mrs. Park is survived by daughters Karen and Dianne; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Memorial gifts may be made to a favorite charity.

Evergreen-Washelli in Seattle was in charge of arrangements.
