

*Death and Memorial NoticeNICHOLAS PAUL SOHA*January 6, 1993
October 22, 2017

Nick was born and raised in Gardiner with his loving parents, Donna and Paul Soha, and sister, Lindsey. He graduated from Sequim High School and worked with Local 32 Plumbers & Pipefitters at Foss Maritime in Ballard, Washington (five years), then found his passion as a pipeliner, working at various locations throughout the state.

During his childhood, Nick played many different sports and developed a love for snowboarding. He grew up in the Pacific Northwest and loved to explore the Olympic Peninsula with his friends on their hunting and fishing excursions. Nick enjoyed building fishing rods, working on trucks with friends and welding.

Nick Soha

Nick is survived by his parents, sister, grandpa Soha and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins who will cherish his memory forever.

He will be greatly missed by his many family, friends and co-workers, as he touched the lives of countless people. Nick was a talented young man, loving and kind-hearted, with a great sense of humor and an easygoing personality. He could capture a room with his charm and charisma. His greatest love was fishing and the outdoors.

Services will be held on Saturday, November 4, 2017, at St. Mary Star of the Sea, 1335 Blaine Street in Port Townsend, beginning with a rosary at 10:30 a.m. and Mass at 11 a.m.

A celebration of life will follow at 1 p.m. at Troll Haven Bandy Farms, 950 Gardiner Beach Road, Sequim.

In lieu of flowers, monetary contributions can be made at Sound Community Bank in Nick's name. This account will be donated to youth services in Clallam County.